Sangamam is a webpage specially designed to promote the event named "Sangamam" that is conducted by "Masiko Cultural Club" at M.Kumarasamy College of Engineering on "23rd February 2019".

The structure of the webpage commences with timer to end-up registration, followed by About section which signifies the history and achievements of M.Kumarasamy college of engineering, followed by section which holds on the content that portrays the motive and familiarity of event "Sangamam".

The next part of webpage holds on the promo videos of event "Sangamam" for past years and also of the current year. This section is followed by a set of photos on slideshow which holds on the details of coordinators of both faculty and students community.

The next part come along with a set of panels, each holds on an event with image describing it and also set of rules that participants should be aware of. Then, The bottom section comes with contact form which the users may use to open up their feedbacks and suggestions.

The webpage is also provided with a registration form in which the participants can pre-register themselves so they can avoid spot registrations. The participant's registration details have been stores in MySQL database.